Fit Education Short Courses

Female Coaching Short Course

Expand your knowledge on female sport involvement and how women can advance in leadership and coaching positions to get the most out of their athletes.

In the sport industry currently, there are substantially more male coaches than female coaches across all levels of sport. Empowering upcoming female coaches/athletes and providing them with the tools to succeed in the industry will help to increase the number of females in coaching positions.

Nutrition Short Course

Expand your knowledge and support your clients with smarter food choices by studying Fit Education's Nutrition Short Course.

Designed by personal trainers for personal trainers, this course is aimed at helping you build a base knowledge of nutrition so your clients achieve the best results and create long lasting healthy habits.

Aus Active 2 CEC Points

Resistance Band Short Course

Resistance bands are a highly useful training tool for all fitness professionals since they can be used in a diverse set of ways, depending on the specific individual and their training goals.

In this course you will learn the technique and theory underpinning resistance bands and the most common exercises to target each muscle group. This will provide you with the tools to use resistance bands across varying levels of difficulty and age groups.

Group Exercise Leader Short Course

The Group Exercise Leader (GEL) program offers a quick and budget-friendly pathway for individuals aspiring to gain a foundational fitness industry qualification to lead prechoreographed fitness classes, such as Les Mills Programs.

This course equips participants with the necessary skills and knowledge to effectively teach group exercise sessions, making it an ideal option for those seeking to enter the fitness industry and share their passion for fitness with others.

Online Trainer Short Course

Expand your knowledge and support your clients with online training.

This course is aimed at helping you build a base knowledge of online training to help expand your business. Personal trainers who work with new technology rather than viewing it as a threat to their existence will benefit both their clients and their businesses.

Aus Active 3 CEC Points

First Aid and CPR

With a nationally accredited first aid course Brisbane and CPR course Brisbane from Fit Education, you'll be able to confidently manage emergency situations and provide a critical first aid response to anyone suffering a casualty.

This certificate is a minimum requirement for workplace first aid compliance and covers the most common workplace injuries and illnesses. On completion of the certificate, you will confidently be able to manage the casualty, provide life support and manage the incident until further help arrives on the scene.

Career Pathways with Fit Education

The Diploma of Sport has University pathways at the Degree level in Business and Sport Development.

Fit Education has Articulation arrangements with Griffith University, University of the Sunshine Coast and James Cook University. Cert IV in Fitness and Diploma of Sport graduates receive credit and entry towards Bachelor courses. Full details of these arrangements are listed on the Fit Education website.

Completing the combined Certificate III and IV in Fitness program offers students a unique opportunity to meet the theory requirement for the Australian Strength and Conditioning Association (ASCA) Level 1 Accreditation.

Through this integrated pathway, students can demonstrate a comprehensive theoretical grasp of essential fitness principles, exercise programming, and sports science concepts. Not only enhancing professional credibility but also widens the spectrum of career prospects, including opportunities to work with sports teams, athletic organisations, and specialized fitness facilities, giving Fit Education graduates a distinct competitive edge within the industry.
